

Day of Service - Friday, August 4th at Larrabee State Park
10:00	Arrive at Larrabee State Park
10:15-10:30	Land acknowledgement, group icebreakers
10:30-1:00	Service Project: removal of invasive English Ivy from trees, beach clean-up
1:00-1:30 - Lunch
1:30-2:15	Park exploration: hike
2:15-3:00	Environmental stories
Youth Climate Summit - Saturday, August 5th at Western Washington University
9:45	Arrival and sign-in - Communications Building Entrance
10:00-10:10	Welcome and framing the day - Communications Building, Room 225
Plenary session #1 10:10-10:40	Climate Change Science 101 - Outside
Concurrent workshop session #1 10:50-11:30	Advocacy for the Salish Sea: pathways to community action and environmental careers	Nature in Action: Implementing Nature-Based Solutions for a Resilient Community
Location	CF 226	CF 225
Presenter	Caitlyn Blair & Katie Kirchofer, Northwest Straits Commission and the Orca Network	Gabe Travis, Kulshan Carbon Trust
Concurrent workshop session #2 11:40-12:20	A Dance for Pachamama: Arts Activism	Climate Action through Student Political Engagement
Location	Outside, Comm lawn	CF 225
Presenter	Mathew Heggem, ClancyWorks Dance Co.	Anna Palmer
12:30-1:00 - Lunch Outside
Concurrent workshop session #3 1:00-1:40	Climate Storytelling	Water Quality in Bellingham
Location	CF 226	CF 225
Presenter	RE Sources/WWU SEI, Gabby Laipeniaks	Grace Schamber
Plenary session #2 1:40-3:00	Climate Action Planning - Divide by school / group / individually with facilitator
3:10-3:40	What have we learned? Where do we go from here?
3:40-4:00	Closing	